“ Janice - I'm so sorry for your loss. As parents, we're never supposed to bury our children, and when that happens, it's so difficult to understand. I will lift up your family for peace, for strength and for encouragement. May God's blessings be upon you during the difficult days ahead.

“ Janice - I do not know any words that can ease the pain in your heart. I do know this; you were the best mother that a daughter could ever have on this Earth. You loved and gave your all, your very best to Amanda. I do know that life goes on. I know you will be strong and get through the hurt and the loss. You will be there for Amanda's children just as she would like to have been. And, Amanda will still be with you. She will be there in the everyday things of life; in the eyes of her children, in the Camellias blooming in your yard, the flowers in spring, the green bell peppers you chop, in all the little things you both shared. She will remain in your heart and soul and mind for all of time. My love to you sweet friend and to your dear husband David. God Bless you all. Kathy Howard “ Amanda was a beautiful young lady whose life touched many with her smile and thoughtful ways. She loved life and her family, and she knew the love of her close family. We were not ready for her to leave, but God was ready to welcome her into his arms. We will never understand God's plan but our hope and faith is all we have to bring us through our sorrows. I wish there were words to comfort you, but know we love you David & Janice and would do anything to take away your sorrow.
