“ Please accept my sincere condolence for your loss. I pray the God of all comfort will help you during this difficult time. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Jesus taught us to pray for Godâ€™s Kingdom to come because He knew it would be able to solve all mankindâ€™s problems even death. (Revelation 21:4,5).

“ Ann Aycoth was one of the kindest and most Godly women I’ve had the honor of knowing. She gave tirelessly of herself to her family, friends and church. She was always willing to listen and be there for others, and her beauty was from her heart and shone out to all those around her. She will be missed but it’s a joy to think of her meeting our Lord Jesus Christ and seeing Gary again, what a reunion that must have been. I send love and prayers to all of the family through this hard time of loss.

“ I grew up in church with Ann and went to school with her. She was always so beautiful and gracious, just like her mother, Verla. I always admired her very much and am sad to hear of her passing.
