“ I am so sorry to hear about the loss of Mr. Keyes. I just wanted to leave a brief word of encouragement during this difficult time for your family. Losing a loved a dear one in death is one of the most difficult things we can experience. The bible promises though, that this will not always be the case. Isaiah 25:8 reminds us of what is going to happen to death. Our dear loved ones have the hope of living again according to Gods promises as written in the scriptures. Jesus demonstrated this with Lazarus and other accounts in the scriptures where he raised individuals from the dead. Our loved ones whom we have lost are sleeping, waiting to be restored to life. May this bring a measure of comfort to your family during this difficult time. As recorded in the scriptures, Mr. Keyes will never say he is sick again

“ Penni, As you know we thought the world of Ben, and when you got married Oct 13,2007 we were so happy he had found the love of his life. Getting to know you, we knew why Ben was head over heels for you. However, we never thought God would call him home so soon, but much love was packed in those seven years!!! Our love is with you, Skylar and family!
