After a banking career that spanned over 45 years, "Buck" retired in 2002 from Home Savings Bank. Upon the relocation of the Locust branch of Home Savings Bank in 2007, the City of Locust named the street running alongside the new location "Buck Hill Drive" in his honor. He was an active member of First Baptist Church in Albemarle since 1955, having served several terms as a Deacon and a former Sunday school leader for high school students. In addition, he served on several search committees to secure ministers and music directors and has been a member of the Saints Sunday School Class for many years. In addition, he was active in the Albemarle Jaycees Club and was named Jaycee of the Year in the late 1950s. Lion Buck has been a long-term member of the Albemarle Lions Club for nearly 50 years and has been an active flag display volunteer putting American flags out on several holidays throughout the year on a route in Albemarle for over 40 years. He was also a long-term member of the Albemarle Investment Club, the oldest investment partnership in North Carolina, and he loved hosting the monthly meetings for all of the members at his barn. One of Buck's most involved acts of volunteer service was with the local medical community. He served a term as Chairman and was a member of the Board of Directors of Stanly Memorial Hospital for a total of 12 years. In addition, he was the first Chairman and was a driving force in the formation of the Stanly Memorial Hospital Foundation in the early 90s. Buck was presented the Governor's Award for Volunteer Service by Governor James Hunt in the late 90s and was named Citizen of the Year by the Stanly County Chamber of Commerce in 1998. In January of 2016, he was awarded the prestigious Order of the Long Leaf Pine by Governor Pat McCrory at an Albemarle City Council meeting. After his retirement from Home Savings Bank, he remained very active in the community, but enjoyed life at its fullest. He was an avid gardener and loved horseback riding, fishing and found much joy in spending time at his barn just outside Albemarle. “ Kenny, I know it is hard to lose a dad as I have had to deal with this in the past myself. While your dad seemed to have been a great person you are the one who is suffering the loss. Know that you are not alone and that God will always be with you to help comfort you. You also know that you have many friends who will keep you in their prayers. Hope to see you in the future back in Guatemala “ Buck was a true Southern Gentleman. From the time I first met him he was always smiling and friendly. He helped me so much when my daddy died; from rushing to the house to help me when I called him. He was right there from the first phone call, to the hospital where he stayed with us during the long hours of waiting, to showing up at the funeral home when the arrangements were made, making sure we had food to eat, to after the burial and on into the future as I dealt with bank accounts and estate. I will never forget the special section of the chapel that was nothing but Home Savings Bank employees with Buck sitting at the front. That meant so much to me. They definitely threw away the mold when Buck was born. He will be greatly missed. Praying for all of the family.

“ I have known Buck for close to forty years. In all of the times I have been around him his demeanor never changed. His smile contagious smile and laugh always made you feel comfortable being around him. He will always be remembered as being a compassionate, humble man who wanted to help people in any way possible. Some of my greatest memories are the times we had fish fry's at his barn with the bank board of directors. He has been an inspiration to me and I will greatly miss him His family can have comfort in knowing his legacy will be remembered for many years. My prayers are with the family in this difficult time.

“ Buck was a dear friend to many. He was a pleasure to be around. My husband and I spent many hours and miles riding horses with Buck. My daughter, 4 yrs. old at the time always rode with us on her pony, many times she would lang behind and I would look back and see her riding next to Buck, They would stay side by side all day long...he would take pictures of her and give to me regularly. We enjoyed him every time we were around him. I know my daughter loved him, as we all did. You are in our thoughts and prayers, may the Lord hold tight to you all and comfort you. Buck will be missed by all who knew him.
