“ I celebrate Cecil's life, his friendship and example as a coworker and as a Christian. He taught me to git'r done, not procrastinate! He shared a love for the Tarheels with a “go Dean”salute. It meant a lot to me that he attended my wedding to Phyllis. His humor at work really lightened up the workplace. Cecil, say hi to Dean Smith in heaven for me! Love, Gary Lichtfeldt

“ So sorry to hear about Cecil passing. Great guy. Was always willing to help at work. Enjoyed our Wolfpack conversations in the hallway.

Sue and Family,

I was so very sorry to hear about Cecil. He was an asset as part of the "Ramp Team" for Hospice, bringing not only his knowledge but his friendship.

He was a genuinely good man and one I was proud to know. He will be missed.

Deepest sympathy,
Bill Randle
