“Denny was a man with a big heart. So many time i saw him take someone in and give him a place to sleep for the night or buy a guy a meal. He was my best friend a true friend a friend that is hard to replace. I got to spend alot of time with him the last 4 years that made our friendship even closer. Since his stroke 4 years ago he never gave up. His love for family and friends was very strong sometime it was hard for him to show but he let me know that Barb and his family ment alot to him. My life will not be the same without my best friend i just hope that i will always have the strength to live life to the fullest like he did.
