“ If flowers grow in heaven, Lord, then pick a bunch for me. Then place them in my mother's arms and tell her they're from me. Tell her that I love and miss her and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.

“ I will miss you Aunt Edith and I will always remember you as a quiet, hard-working, gentle lady. You will live on in Heaven free without pain now, but you will also live on here on earth-within your children and grandchildren who remain behind with happy memories of you. May God bless them at this time and ease their sorrow. And may God bless my Daddy as well. He lost his sweet sister and I know that breaks his heart.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.
