“ My sincerest condolences. I knew Eric kindergarten as we were I many classes together through graduation and traveled in many if the same circles. We had the pleasure of seeing Eric again after college graduation in June of 1988 when he was in town with some other classmates that were in town at that time. May god comfort you and your family in time of need.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Eric starting in August at Big Rock Sports in Hamlet. Not a day went by that he did not greet me and ask if everything was going okay. I noticed that he always treated everyone as if they were family and never made anyone feel as if he was better than them. He always had a very contagious smile on his face and energy unlike anyone I have ever seen. When we received the news about his passing everyone was and still is, in complete disbelief . He touched so many hearts here and also mine in my short time knowing him. I am praying for all of his family and also for peace and understanding during this hard time. Thank you Eric for being such an amazing person.

With greatest sympathy,
Chasity

“ I remember when my dad pass away back in May . ERIC told my supervisor Jay, to notify me that I can travel back to Africa to visit my family and anytime I return from my trip the Job is still going to be available. That shows how wonderful and appreciative he was to we the employees .We LOVE YOU ERIC , but GOD love you the most . REST WELL.

“ I am guessing but believe I first met Eric when he was 2 years old. To me, Eric was the adorable, sweet little brother of my friend Lenore. For a time during our childhood, Eric's home was like my second home and one I loved to visit. It was made wonderful by Lenore, Eric, their other brothers and sisters and the best chocolate chip cookies I have had in my life. I am so sorry for the family's loss.

“ I worked with Eric as a co manager at Rite Aides Distribution Center. During that time I lost my first husband and became a widow. Eric was one of the few people who could still bring a smile to my face. He had an energy that drew you in and such a contagious smile and laugh! I am deeply saddened for your loss and I know no words will comfort you during this time but know that I am praying for your family. I was very angry with God at one point but there is a verse that after several months brought me comfort. "Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again, and you will rejoice, and no one will be able to take away your joy." You will see Eric again, imagine him saying this to you now.
