“ Prayers for her family members. I know it's hard but we have to trust in God. She was a good Christian lady. To me that is what is most important.

“ I am so sorry for your loss and yet so thankful for the reunion in Heaven! Y'all already know how kind and loving your mom was and how much she loved Her Lord and Savior. Her legacy will live on in her children. I am going to miss her even though I didn't see her often. Her love and beautiful smile will live on. I love y'all.

“ This woman....so much to say....I knew her for a short time yet she taught me a great lesson in life. ...No matter what the end of life holds for you, you can keep a grin on your face with no complaints because God and faith is that great. Truly this is what I experienced with Etha Blanche Burris a woman of God I admire!!

“ I've always said it is not that you are rich or famous to be remember; It is what you have done in your life that will be in the hearts of others. Mrs. B, will always be in my heart for her love to her family and her love to God. She never talked politics and always seen the good of others.

“ Aunt Blanche meant so very much to me throughout all her years! She was an example and inspiration to me. She had a strength and bravery in her life; traveling with and raising her children alone many times in the early years. She was someone to be admired and I definitely admired and loved her so!

“ Becky, Joe and Mark...I'm so sorry for your loss..Your mom was a loving and caring woman..She stood by you through thick and thin. She was a fighter and she proved it through her illness. She was a mom to me and I will always be thankful for that. I love you guys and have you all in my heart and prayers. I know your dad and Lane welcomed her home. I pray for healing hearts for the whole family..
