“ Dear family, My heart aches from the grief that you are suffering. Knowing of God's embracing love for you, continue looking to him when " He will wipe out all tears from our eyes, death, pain, and suffering will be no more. " - Revelation 21:3,4 He says death is an " enemy that will be brought to nothing. " - 1 Corinthians 15:26 It comforts our hearts to know this pain will be a thing of the past and through Christ the resurrection of our loved ones. We " do not sorrow just as the rest do who have no hope! " - 1 Thessalonians 4:13 love from a stranger, jrfdog@gmail.com

“ Pops, At 30 years old you taught me how to play canasta so well that no one will play with me anymore and how to make the meanest homemade mac & cheese for the holiday meals. Please know that my gratitude is endless and will continue to grow. We are not going to know what to do with ourselves this holiday dinner knowing what to do with ourselves this holiday dinner. We love ya, Pop.
