

Frederic Arthur Brault Jr.

June 6, 1938 - May 16, 2026

Frederic Arthur Brault, Jr., 87, of Charlotte, passed away peacefully at his home on May 16, 2026.

A memorial service to honor and celebrate his life will be held at Bethel Baptist Church on Saturday, May 23rd at 2:00pm, with Pastor Brian Bolding, Dr. Denise Honeycutt, and Rev. Pat Watkins officiating.

Born June 6, 1938, in Washington, DC, he was the son of the late Frederic Arthur Brault, Sr. and Sue Brault Ellington. Fred devoted his professional life to a successful career in sales within the hydraulics and pneumatics industry, working for several companies throughout the years before retiring from Automation Technology in Concord. His ability to build lasting relationships, combined with his integrity and genuine care for others, earned him the respect and friendship of both colleagues and customers alike.

Fred will be remembered as a faithful and Godly man whose life was centered on love for his family, his friends, and his Lord. Those who knew him best remember his wonderful storytelling, generous spirit, unwavering faith, loving heart, and sense of humor. Even during life's most difficult moments, Fred had a remarkable ability to bring laughter and lightness to those around him. His humor, optimism, and steady faith helped carry both family and friends through challenging times. Relationships were at the core of who he was, and he treasured the friendships he built throughout his life. He was the kind of friend who remained loyal and dependable through every season of life.

Family meant everything to Fred. He found great joy in preserving and sharing his family's history and was known as the family historian, lovingly documenting stories, memories, and genealogy for future generations. Through his writings, he created a lasting legacy that will continue to connect and inspire his family for years to come.

He also enjoyed music, fishing, turkey and deer hunting, gardening, and the simple blessings of time spent outdoors. One of his favorite songs was I Can't Walk Without You Holding My Hand, a reflection of the deep faith that guided his life. He especially found comfort and strength in the many Bible verses reminding believers to "Be not afraid." Through every challenge he faced, Fred remained steadfast in both life and faith, never giving up and always trusting in God's grace.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 33 years, Mary Lambert Brault; his children, Kip Byrne (Britt) of Charlotte, Mary Beth Brault of Mechanicsville, Virginia, Fred Brault III (MaryBeth) of Manakin-Sabot, Virginia, and Sarah Fox (Gordy) of Glen Allen, Virginia; his stepdaughter, Emily Weisenbeck (Craig) of Eau Claire, Wisconsin; eighteen grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by those loved ones who welcomed him into eternal rest.

The family respectfully requests that memorials be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

“ I saw a job opening in the Macon Telegraph for a Hydraulic Salesman... Im smarter than the average Bear.. So I decided to call the number and talk to the clean up guy after hours and find out about the Bossman.. Little did I know I was talking to Fred... He never let on... 2 weeks later he flew his rental plane to Dublin Ga... I saw him land in a crosswind ... get under the wind turn the plane at the last second... stick a perfect landing... Im Naval Aviation.. Flight Deck stuff... Coolest thing I ever saw in person... Took him to his Hotel.. He said pick me up we will go to Supper. Im a Redneck so I took him to a Micro Brewery... He was in a Blue Blazer with a Canary Yellow Monagramed shirt with FAB on the cuff... He reminded me of Jim West from the TV Show Wild Wild West... I knew I was out of my element. He ordered a Wild Turkey and a splash of water... Again... Amazing... I had a beer and ordered Chicken wings.. I was so Nervous that I was eating a Flat trid to twist the bones out... it shot across the table and hit him in the chest... He ordered a club soda to try an clean it to no avail. He said take me to my room.. im gonna Fly to South Ga in the morning and I terview another guy... I knew I screwed the pooch.. so we left.. Thank the Good Lord I was out of gas.. Had to stop at the gas station.. Don't know why I left the door open but I did.. Older black gentleman in a beat up Chevy truck next pump. I asked him where he went fishing found out asked him for his number and set a date to fish. Filled up got back in .. Fred says.. Im not going to hire nobody but you.. You got that guys history and made a friend. Im gonna train you what we do... You just make those friends with People that buy our products.. The rest is history as they say... He changed my life and my boys life.. All 3 College .. All amazing kids. Not possible without Fred's tutelage. The classiest Man I ever met.. But he was Humble ,Kind, Patient.. To say I Love Him is an Understatement. A big part of me is gone without him.. To his family especially Little Freddy... My heart breaks for yall.. Much Love and thanks for Sharing your Dad with Me.
