“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

“ Marie, I am so sorry to learn this today. I told you I would come visit you at some time but I never got around to doing it. I don't get out much anymore. I've had several health problem and a few broken bones so I stay home most of the time. I remember the nice visits we had when the girls were little - so long ago. Tammi has one daughter, Bailey Grace, who is a sophomore at Catawba.

Again,I am sorry for your loss. I know how hard it is and I wish you peace and comfort in knowing Fred and Dee Ann are together again.

I may shock you one day and come see you but I'll call first.
