“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

“ Jane and family, my heart aches for you all at the passing of Ginger. We lost touch over the years but I have always loved each of you and have fond memories from when we were neighbors years ago. With the exception of family, Ginger was the first person to babysit for me. My girls loved her and Amy so. I actually saw Ginger a few years ago at CMC Charlotte. We were both so excited to have run into each other that we kept hugging and she had that beautiful smile that I always remembered her having. You all are in my prayers. With much love! Cathy Smith.
