“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

“ The entire Smith family has my sympathy. I have known Mr. Ivy and Mrs. Doris my entire life.. Have always loved them. As a child my family visited often as they did my family. They were not only friends as I was growing up but 30 yrs ago became my neighbors. Going to miss seeing Mr. Ivy sitting on porch in the summertime but he is having a time with our Lord and Saviour.
