“ Mary Beth, Jimmy, & Beth, Every year my godfather “Uncle” Jimmy would send me a “Happy Christmas Birthday” card for my Christmas birthday, and every year, but one, he called me on my birthday. So this year I was surprised that I did not get a Christmas/birthday card from him, but when I didn’t get a phone call Christmas day, I knew something was wrong. Yesterday I called and emailed Uncle Jimmy with no success and then I searched for his obituary and unfortunately found it. I want you all to know how much I loved your father and how I so looked forward to his phone call every year. Your father was so thoughtful and caring. He never missed one of my brothers children’s birthdays, Jim and my anniversary and of course my birthday. He was such a great friend of my father’s and my mother’s. I remember mom and Uncle Jimmy drinking gin martinis in our living room in Elmont after work chatting away like two girlfriends while dad was reading his book in the den. I am so glad that we were home to receive your father’s phone call last Christmas and we were able talk for a little while. He did not mention he was ill. Was he? What happened? I’ve spent some time today on your Facebook pages. I feel like I’ve caught up a bit with Jimmy’s life (do you remember Hawaiian Punch!), but not so much with Mary Beth or Beth. I would love to hear back from one of you to hear what happened to your dad. With fond memories, Kathy Goff Meade meadek@optonline.net

“My family is very saddened by the death of your father and grandfather. We have been blessed with the opportunity to know him over the last couple of years. He was a special friend to my mother and she will miss him. I will remember him for his gentle spirit and how kind he always was. He was the consummate gentleman. May God surround you with his love and grace as you mourn the loss of this dear man.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.

“ as I have known Mr James the last 12 years, I want to thank God for sending him to our family. He became someone that I could talk to and he never judhed me but help me with some many decisions. He was such a loving husband to my mom and took care of her,he checked on grandma and aunt Betty most everyday. He was a hnmbles and gentle soul and almost all the time had a smile. Never will forget him telling me that he loved me the last time my heart is broken losing him but I know that he is in Heaven with loved ones and especially our Lord and Savior. Never say bye but till we meet again .Love u Mr James
