“ I'm sorry to hear about your loss. Losing a loved one in death is one of the most difficult things anyone has to cope with. May your family gain a measure of comfort knowing that the bible holds out a resurrection hope for our dear loved ones. Almighty God wants us to throw our anxiety on Him (1Peter 5:7) because he cares for us.

“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

“ Junior, Thank you for being my friend. You were one of a kind, and a very kind one! What a true legacy you have left :)Starting 45 years ago when you kept me from getting smashed by a big tree until now and forever, you have and will always be my friend, and I'm going to miss you so much. Thanks for teaching me what you did about life, cows and for teaching me how to bale hay this summer. You on one tractor and me on the other and you reminding me to keep those wind rows tight. Nothing but open fields, sunshine and peace of mind. Those were some of the best times I've ever had.Until we meet up again, go rest and if you can find a tractor, ride on those fields of gold!
