“ Karen you are welcome, Tho I wish i could have say it more to her while she was still here. I have always thought a lot of your Mother & also thought she was one of the most beautiful person in the world. She always had a great personality in public and to those around her & a very hard worker. I know the day will come that I will see her again and the same for all of you to see her. If you will, Please tell me how your son Chad is doing and how old is he now? Karen I'm sorry but i didn't even know that Your Mother was sick. As you can see when I first wrote on this tribute wall that some times my mind & finger's don't want to work together. But I know that you would understand on what I mint in my writing? Dear one if you will and feel like it some times Please e-mail me sometimes, I would like for us to stay in touch from time to time. I'm at (jesseowens11@yahoo.com) But Please Note That you all are still in my Thought's & Prayers. Love To All, Jesse L. Owens

“ My heart is so sadden of the passing of a good old Dear Friend Johnsie Ann Dry Herlocker, Her & I had the most fun while working together for so many years at Whispering Pines & at her & Larry's house cooking out steak's. She will be so grateful miss by me and so many other's that came to knew her. I know that she is so glad to be with her son Michael now and all of her other Love Ones that was waiting for her on the other side of those Golden Gates Of Haven. Johnsie may You Rest now for ever in the Loving Arms Of Our Lord Jesse Christ. And I pray for God's comfort And that He see you through This darkest time and the days a head of you all. Boy I'm sure going to miss your sweet pretty smile My Dear Friend & the Fun Time that we had Johnsie, Love You my Dear Friend. If any of the Family would like to E-Mail Me you can at (jesseowens11@yahoo.com) God Be With You All. "Good Night Johnsie!"
