“ Such a wonderful tribute to a wonderful man! Along with that smile, Larry had quite a sense of humor to match. He enjoyed razing not only me but Amanda and Kara especially when we were playing “Spoons” during family games. He was a blessing to know and I look forward to his teasing me in heaven. I’ll have to come up with some appropriate comments in return. â ¤ĩ,

“ Larry you are already missed so much! You were always the first one to give us a hug or handshake at Family gatherings, funny and tender hearted. You had a need for speed and loved purdy cars and trucks. Give all our loved ones a hug for me. Love you Cousins â ¤
