“ I came to know Kiang when I worked at their family restaurant in Albemarle. (my husband says that was the best restaurant back then, as he recalls). Kiang was my sweet friend, too, while I was attending college in Albemarle away from home. One of my fun memories of her is that when she found out I was sick, she took time to make me a rice soup and made sure I was well. I will miss her! Our deepest sympathy and God's blessing to the Ly Kiang family! Russell &Kim
