“ I am so sorry to hear of your lost. I lost my grandmother and that was the worst feeling, I had never known I could hurt so much. The one thing I found comforting even now is the hope I found in the Bible in John 5:28,29 those who hear Jesus voice will come out the memorial tombs and live again, yes Jesus promised that millions now dead will live again. I encourage you to read that when you get a chance. I also Really enjoyed the scripture in Rev 21:3,4 how death will be no more in the future. Isn't that a wonderful hope we can look forward to? Again please accept my condolences.

“ I'm so sorry to learn of Margot's passing. We were neighbors many years ago when she lived on Tilden and I around the corner on Carrington. I've thought about her and the family many times during the years since she left the neighborhood. I remember Margot as a really, really fine person and so pleasant to be around. She will be dearly missed by her family, I know. Snooky, Tom, and Dawn Landen
