“ I'm so sad to hear of Mary's passing. She was always a friendly and familiar face at the pharmacy I frequent. Such a sweet lady that will be missed by many. My condolences and prayers are with her family.

“ I knew Mary in a professional capacity. I was one of many customers she endured with her sweet attitude and welcoming smile.

If I may share a quick story, it was Christmas time a couple of years ago and my wife and I wanted to show our appreciation for the extraordinary service we felt she had given us throughout the year. I purchased a gift card, (a modest amount), and left it for her with the staff. When I saw her next she was quiet and reserved when she told me her management wouldn't allow her to keep it. I asked management for an explanation and was told it could be mistaken for some sort of breach of ethics Nonsense! Mary, being who she was, considered the gesture as strong as if she had actually received the gift and I'm happy to say we became friends with interest in each others lives and families.

We offer our sincerest condolences in a loss that has touched many, but has, I'm sure, devastated the ones closest to her.
