“ Matt and I met less than a year before he passed, he got a job with a friend of mine and stayed with me for a while.. his music inspired me to write some of my own and his art was breath taking.. He had huge dreams of success and believed he could single handedly take on the universe, this was overwhelming at times for him but kept him going.. I love u Matt, u will always be in my heart

“ Finding the right words to describe how I feel is difficult. The total shock of this tragedy is as close as I can come. David you made an impression on so many peoples lives at your young age. Those who had the opportunity to see the real you know that appearances can be deceiving. You may have looked like a bad a$$, but the core was as gentle as an Autumn breeze. I am sadden that your life was taken so young and under these circumstances, but now you finally have peace. Joined together again with Paw Paw Jim, Grandma Barbara, mom, Betsy and dad, JR, what a family celebration. I love you David and will miss you deeply. Fly high with the Angels. Aunt Lisa

“ I was so heartbroken to hear of Matt's passing. He stayed at my house and slept on my couch many a night and I was always glad that he could safely fall asleep in the warm heat in the winter and in the cool air during the summer. He did lots of things around my house - mowed my yard, washed my car, cleaned my garage - and he helped me out so much. We didn't know each other that well, but we got into some really neat conversations about music, drawing, and philosophy. We didn't always agree, but I felt a little bit of pride at helping out the son of Betsy and nephew of Tim, both schoolmates with me at Sun Valley back in the 80s. My sincere condolences to Amanda at this time. May let perpetual shine on you, Matt, as you enjoy eternity with your mom and other family members who've gone on. I'll miss you.
