“ I am so sorry for your loss. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death. Hope these words give you a new hope.

“ I remember going to school with Michael, then he was called "Twitty bird" I have seen him jump off his roof many times as the bus would drop him off on wolfe rd. As I heard the news of his passing, I couldnt help but remember some of the childhood things he did. although grown up, and moved away. I hate that I never had the chance to tell him of Jesus, how he can make all things new, the past, present and most importantly the future. The Bible teaches us, that life is but a vapor, we never know when or who will leave this life and step into eternity. But we can be assured if we know Jesus where that eternity will be. My heart felt prayer of condolences goes out to his family, for his passing of this life. and also that it be a reminder to us all, what may be today may not be tomorrow, use the time God has given us to show love, to share love, and to never take our life, or our eternity for granted. God bless
