“ Paul, I'm thrilled you added New England Harbor to your art collection. I lived in that area for a few years as a young adult and it calls back to me often. Paris and the French countryside also bring out my passion and I hope to return in 2013 for another paint trip. In the meantime, I continue to paint from photos taken from previous trips. I'm glad you enjoyed my latest painting, Pont Neuf, Paris and the accompanying Youtube video. All of the paintings on my website are available directly through me. Feel free to call or email for more information. I keep the gallery paintings separate which can be found on the gallery website.

“ Well, I'm dealing with a mother that wants to give up rights (FINALLY). My husband (her ex-husband) has raised her son since he was 2 as his own. He wants to live with us because his mom is a druggie/horrible. We raise him, we love and provide for him. I'm looking for a form that she can easily do what's right. Child support out of her?? Yeah right. It's not always the man that should pay child support.

“ Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.
