“ I worked with Pansy at the Clerk of Court's Office. She was beautiful and loved her laugh. The last time I saw her was at my retirement party. She and Eleanor came and that meant the world to me. I wish I had stayed in touch with all my co-workers. I have so many wonderful and funny memories, working with these group of ladies. You will be missed my dear sweet Pansy.

“ The day I met Pansy was one of the best days of my life. Daddy called me to let me know he was in Charleston and had a surprise. My boyfriend/husband and I went to dinner and met the most beautiful woman who had married my daddy. I got to know this real and true Sweet Southern Bell. She welcomed me into her heart and then later when I married she welcomed my husband and children. Many times when we spoke on the phone, I told her I wished we lived closer. Unfortunately life goes on. The last time I saw her beautiful face was when daddy died. I will miss her but I am grateful that she is there to welcome my husband. Rest In Peace Mom and know that you were so loved by many!
