“ Dear Family: Please accept our deepest condolences to your family for the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by knowing that the Almighty God is close to the brokenhearted; he saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18) Our King, Jesus Christ told us to pray for the Kingdom to come on earth in the Lord's Prayer. (Mathew 6: 10) That Kingdom will put an end to all of the pain and suffering we experience today. May the beautiful memories shared with your loved one along with knowing that we will be able to see our precious dead loved ones again in the near future when God's Kingdom rule over the earth grant you peace and comfort at this difficult time. (John 5:28,29) Sincerest Sympathies, The Webb Family

“Our deepest and sincerest condolences to the family. Words alone can not ease the pain when grieving the loss of a love one. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". May God give you and your family comfort in your loving memories and in His promise that soon we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope, with deepest sympathy and warmth of heart.

“ Kay and family, My heartfelt condolences to all of you. I pray that God will fill the void left in your life. I am retired now but previously worked with Ray at both Goulston Technologies and Allvac a number of years ago. I always enjoyed working with and talking to him. His smile will be missed.
