“ I went to elementary and middle school with Seth. I hadn't seen him since then but I did often wonder how he and the others were doing. We were also in the same Band class.. I'm sorry to hear about the loss of Seth. I remember hearing about it in my Business class and I was holding back tears. Because he was the one who always had a smile on his face and cracked jokes. He had a big heart and perhaps it carried too much pain within him. I hope that all of you will be able to heal one day. I'm so sorry.

“ Though I never got the privilege to meet this bright young man, I planted a tree 🌳 in loving memory of Seth 🕊️, I planted this 🌳 tree as a tribute to his beautiful spirit. Just as this tree will grow, reaching toward the sky ☁️, so will the ❤️ love and memories he left with us. With every root that strengthens, it carries the joy, laughter, and light he brought to Natasha, Savannah, Breydon, and everyone who knew him. May this 🌳 tree serve as a living reminder of his presence, grounding us in ❤️ love and holding close the kindness and warmth he shared.

Each 🌿 leaf that rustles and every branch that stretches is a testament 🕊️ to Seth's journey, now deeply rooted in our hearts 💕
Though his time 🕒 with us was too brief, his memory will live on and continue to grow, just as this 🌳 tree will, for years to come.

Remember I'm here to support you all and please call if you need an ear.

With all my 😍 love ❤️ and prayers 🙏

“ I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Seth. He came over to my house several times to hang out with my son Jaydan. Seth was always so kind and respectful. Anytime he ever saw me, he made sure to come hug my neck. I hope the special memories of Seth will bring some peace and comfort on those hard days. All of the family and those who knew Seth will be in my prayers!

“ I will always remember Seth as the little boy who played basketball with his brother and cousin across the street from my house. Young lives cut short seem to cut the deepest. I hope in this tragedy, others are able to find the light and be brought to Jesus.
