“Dearest Jackie, we are praying for you and rejoicing with Bud as he walks the streets of heaven. I will never forget that twinkle in his eye as he taught Sunday School and brought so much fun to every lesson. He walked the walk and influenced all who knew him for the Lord. I am forever grateful for the two of you dropping what you had planned to turn a pizza lunch into a birthday party for a little girl whom you had never met before. Bud was one of a kind, and I know you will miss him dearly. Please know we will keep you in our prayers. Love, Luanne & Scott Williams

“Bud was a fine man. We worked together in the mobile home industry a while back. In our younger days he was a light hearted fun loving guy. We worked hard but laughed a lot. He was always smiling and looking for fun. Sadly his health failed him to young. He never had an unkind word. We are surely saddened by his loss. God bless you Jackie and family. He is surely smiling and strolling over heaven tonight.
